

Come meet a dynamic young woman from Ghana

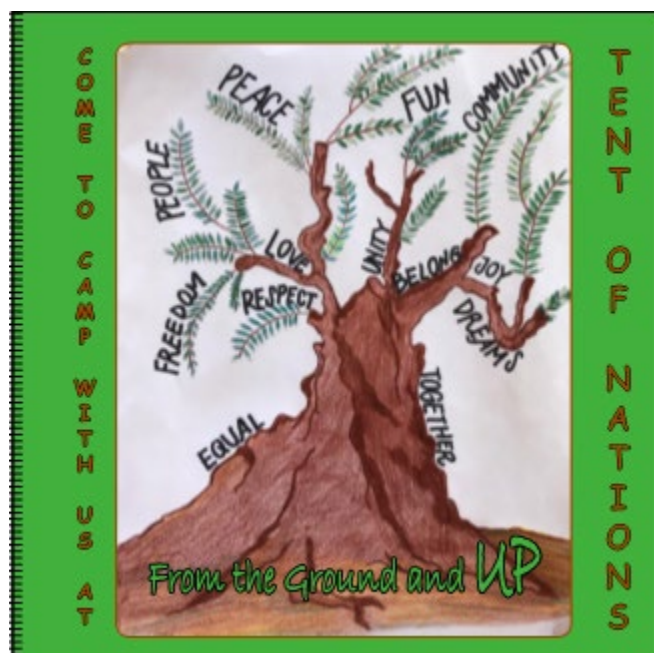

Ruth Afoko

Wednesday, October 7

6:30 p.m.

Trinity Las Américas UMC

1548 8th St, Des Moines

Ruth is training
"Little Ambassadors for Peace"
integrating the children's activities with her community development

TEMIS Foundation

work in northern Ghanaian villages.
Her work points out a way to a more sustainable and peaceful earth.

These projects were seeded with ten copies of the Tent of Nations' book From the Ground and UP, about children's summer camp in occupied West Bank of Palestine, assembled by Virginia Wadsley, with help from TLA staff and Richard Nordin, who is a neighbor of Virginia's in Des Moines.

In Ghana, Ruth's project grew to over 200 children reading the book and conducting its suggested activities as they become
"Little Ambassadors for Peace."

Ruth is now developing TON Reading Clubs in several schools and anticipating an event with 1,000 children at the end of the year.

Come and learn about the Tent of Nations and their work to build peace in the tumult of the West Bank – also meet Virginia..
